

Dieter Birnbacher, born 1946 in Dortmund, Germany. From 1993 to 1996 professor of philosophy at the University of Dortmund, from 1996 to 2012 professor of philosophy at the University of Düsseldorf. President of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Humanes Sterben, Berlin; vice-president of Schopenhauer-Gesellschaft, Frankfurt/M.; member of the Central Ethics Commission of the Bundesärztekammer (German Medical Association), member of Leopoldina, National Academy of Sciences.

Main publications: Die Logik der Kriterien. Analysen zur Spätphilosophie Wittgensteins, Hamburg 1974; Verantwortung für zukünftige Generationen, Stuttgart 1988 (translated into French and Polish); Tun und Unterlassen, Stuttgart 1995; Analytische Einführung in die Ethik. Berlin 2003; Bioethik zwischen Natur und Interesse, Frankfurt am Main 2006 (translated into Japanese); Natürlichkeit, Berlin 2006 (translated into English); Schopenhauer 2009 (translated into Dutch); Negative Kausalität (together with D. Hommen) Berlin 2012; Klimaethik, Stuttgart 2016; Tod, Berlin 2017.